Cross Island Connection

A Lakeview Ambassador Program

Announcing Cross Island Connection—a new ambassador program between Lakeview and the United Methodist Churches of the Texas Annual Conference. Aimed at enhancing communication, this program will strengthen the relationship we share with each of our Conference congregations enabling better communication and information. Ultimately, the program seeks to meet and fulfill the retreat needs of all our churches.

Who Will Be Involved?

We will seek 1 person or small team from each congregation to be the liaison, mouthpiece, and cheerleader for this exciting communication avenue. This person, or Ambassador, first and foremost must have a true love for Lakeview, its ministries, and the programs it hosts and sponsors. The ideal Ambassador will have experience at Lakeview and already be familiar with the camp.

What are the Responsibilities?

The Ambassador will have 3 key roles:

- ◆ Identify the congregation's retreat ministry needs, planning events, team-building & group cohesion.
- ◆ Deliver and promote to the appropriate church group, committee, leader, or class the information, publicity, and promotional materials from Lakeview.
- ◆ Be a source for accurate and up-to-date Lakeview information.

What training will be involved?

We'll spend the next couple of months recruiting Ambassadors for Cross Island Connection. In the spring of 2008 we will plan a day gathering of all our ambassadors at Lakeview to welcome them and express our appreciation for their help. Also, we'll use this time to equip them with everything needed to be a successful and informed Ambassador!

"what an exciting time to get reconnected with our churches for ministry to children, youth, and adults. . ."
